There does not seem to be such a rush as a while back for the county offices. What's the matter?

It is said the telegraph and long-distance telephone wires between Hot Springs, Va., and Oyster Bay are kept hot these days

It won't be so very long now before we will know whom the Republicans are going to put up for Mr. Kitchin to knock down.

The Herald of Durham says that town has been dry for three or four weeks. Does it mean the water supply has given out?

Every time any one on the streets asks us: "Is this hot enough for you?" we wonder why Jesse Holmes doesn't come down this way.

If Mr. Bryan is elected don't you reckon Colonel John Temple Graves will want to hire someone to give the recently appointed assistant editor of the New York American a good kicking?

The fact that Chairman Hitchcock will establish his headquarters in Chicago shows that the Republicans expect the West and Middle West to be the chief political battle ground this year.

The Raleigh Times says the reason Georgia peaches cost more than usual this year is because they are packed by pretty girls. It would have been more gallant had it said that was why they—the peaches—were so much sweeter than ever before.

It seems to be a race between Bryan and Taft as to which shall use the least tainted money in the campaign. Heretofore all money for campaign purposes was considered good. Politics seems to be getting mighty clean these days.

Mr. Taft need not have taken the trouble to reduce his twenty thousand word letter of acceptance to four thousand. There will not be many more people who will read the revised article than would have waded through the other.

Every Democratic paper in the country is made an agent of the treasurer of the Democratic National committee for the purpose of securing campaign funds and every farmer who is a Democrat is asked to call and make his contribution. We expect to see some papers making club rates.

The Supreme Court in New York, city has rendered a decision enjoining a negro organization from adopting the name of the B. P. O. E. or an imitation of the same. This decision, however, is effective only within the jurisdiction of that court ,which is the State of New York.

THE DAY IN RALEIGH

Cocaine Habit Taking Root Among Wake Colored [illegible] After Prohibition.

Library of Congress

JACOBI MEMORIAL BUILDING

Plans Have Been Adopted For Handsome Structure—The A. & M. Presidency—State Auditor Dixon Resting.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 22.—The rapid growth of the cocaine habit among the negroes of Raleigh now that the dispensary is eliminated and prohibition is in full sway, was forcibly illustrated this morning in Wake Superior Court during the trial of two negroes for seriously cutting another.

Witnesses testified that a party of a dozen or more negroes where the cutting occurred had a cigar box filled with cocaine and that they were "sniffing it up" their noses. In reply to questions from Judge Neal they said that they frequently saw negroes using it. However, they declared with one accord that they did not know where they procured it. The cutting appeared to have grown out of a regular "cocaine debauch."

Plans prepared by Chas. McMillen, the architect of Wilmington, for the Nathaniel Jacobi Memorial building at the North Carolina Odd Fellows' Orphanage, Goldsboro, have been adopted by the trustees and it is understood that work is to begin within a few weeks. It is a three-story structure and will cost $22,000. The first floor will be devoted principally to gymnasium rooms and other apartments for recreation; the second to girls' dormitory and parlors and the third to an assembly hall with 500 seating capacity.

It is thought probable that when the trustees of Wake Forest College meet in this city Thursday to elect a successor to Dr. Lewis M. Gaines, as professor in the medical department of the college, they will select Dr. Stewart, now a member of the faculty of Columbian Medical College, New York.

The executive committee of the Trustees of the North Carolina College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts' was in session here today going over the situation preparatory for the session of the Board of Trustees to be held tomorrow for the election of a president for the college to succeed Dr. Winston, resigned. The friends of various candidates are actively at work now putting in their final pulls. President W. J. Quick, of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, who is an active candidate for the place, arrived here this morning to personally look after his interests. Among the others most prominently mentioned are Prof. D. H. Hill, now vice president and professor of English; Dr. Tait Butler, now State Veterinarian.

State Auditor B. F. Dixon goes to Boone, Watauga county, tomorrow to deliver the address for the close of a very successful Summer school for teachers in which sixteen counties were represented. He will then go to Vaklacrusis, in the same county, for a few days' rest, carrying with him the county reports of Confederate pensioners as sent in by the county boards of pension for revision. Before returning to Raleigh he will also visit a number of those counties in the State in which the State taxes paid into the State treasury are less than the amounts received from the State in school and pensions and other funds. There were 45 of the counties last year and will be 40 or more this year when the property valuations are all certified up by the counties.

There is renewed interest in talk here as to who the Republicans will probably put in the race against Hon. W. W. Kitchin, for the Governorship, in that it is stated on good authority that Mr. J. Elwood Cox, of High Point, than whom there is no more popular and successful business man in the State, has intimated that he might reconsider his decision some time ago that he would under no circumstances accept the Republican nomination. It is said now that Mr. Cox has decided that he would accept the nomination provided the State ticket named was entirely to his liking. Also that he would want the Republicans to declare for a non-partisan educational department.

Quiet Marriage Yesterday.

Of much interest to the friends of the couple was the marriage of Mr. Thomas F. Bell and Miss Swepter Ray, daughter of 'Squire Joel Ray, of Delgado, which was a quiet affair at the home of the groom on Castle street yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed at 5 o'clock, Rev. Joseph P. King, of the Advent Christian church, officiating. A few friends and acquaintances were present to witness the marriage vows.

WEEK AT WRIGHTSVILLE

"Skidoo" Hop Tonight Followed by Regular Dances and Japanese Affair on Monday Evening. Aquatic Sports.

With the regular mid-week dance last night at Lumina, which was attended by a large number of young people from the city and by visitors on the beach, there will be a round of pleasures at this delightful resort for the next few days.

Tonight will be given one of the most unique affairs of its kind in the history of the beach. Reference is to the "Skidoo Dance," elaborate arrangements for which have been made by the Tidewater Power Co. The "23" idea will be carried out not only in the dance figures but in the music and decorations. All the dancers will receive favors as on souvenir nights but each 23rd lady passing into the ball room floor on a certain dance will receive a special souvenir, the nature of which will not be known until the night. The music by Kneisel's orchestra will be in every way appropriate and the hop promises to be novel and most interesting, not only for the dancers but for the large number of spectators who are expected.

Saturday night there will be the usual week-end dance and on Monday evening will come the Japanese affair. For this special dance preparations have also been of an elaborate nature and it will be a big spectacular affair as will be the one of tonight. A great deal of time and thought has been given to the arrangements by the clever officials of the company in charge.

Saturday afternoon a series of aquatic sports will be given at Lumina for the benefit of the large crowds always there on the week-end. Arrangements are being made for four events —quarter-mile, half-mile, one-mile, and two-mile races. The course for most of them will be straight out from Lumina to a buoy anchored off shore. The two-mile race will likely be from Lumina to the Hotel Tarrymoore and back again, the distance being nearly two and a half miles. This will be the big event of the day and among the entries are H. P. Keane, C. W. Claflin and M. Ferguson. The quarter-mile race is for the Y. M. C. A. Juniors. Those who desire to enter any of the races should hand their names in to the Tidewater Power Company's office Substantial prizes will be offered in each event.

CHARGE OF FALSE PRETENSE

Representative of Produce Commission House Up in Fayetteville.

Yesterday afternoon's Fayetteville Observer has the following of local interest:

"Quite a crowd of witnesses came up from Robeson county this morning to attend the trial of State vs. T. B. Taylor. The State was represented by Col. C. W. Broadfoot and Cook & Davis, Mr. Davis appearing, and the defendant by Hon. G. B. Patterson, of Maxton. The warrant of arrest was for false pretense against the defendant in that he had represented that a New York produce house, of which he was the purchasing agent throughout this section, was solvent when it is alleged the house was insolvent, or "busted", and that the defendant knew that such was its condition at the time he represented otherwise. The trial was before Esquire Frank Glover, who associated with him Esquire C. P. Overby, and the trial took place at the office of the latter. It was finally continued, on motion of the prosecution until Friday, July 30th, at 1:30 o'clock, P. M. This was quite a disappointment to the defense as there was quite a large number of witnesses from a distance, and it was contended that the inconvenience and expense of bringing them here again would be considerable. Mr. D. K. Taylor of this city, was marked as prosecuting witness in the case."

LUMBERTON WAS EASY.

Compress Giants Again the Victors in Baseball Game Yesterday.

The Compress Giants, the local colored baseball team, made it two out of three from the Lumberton Red Birds at the new League Park yesterday afternoon, score 5 to 1. The game was fast and snappy, the visitors being clearly outplayed. The score:

Lumberton	000	100	000—1 5 4
Wilmington	201	101	00*—5 8 2

Batteries—Thomas and Powell; Brown and Leonard.

The local management of the games complains that the colored people of the city do not appreciate good playing and that very little patronage was given here. Next week the Compress Giants will play a colored team from Goldsboro the first three days.

Goldsboro, N. C., July 22.—In a vain effort to win the game in the ninth inning today Goldsboro ran in a number of batters, one of whom made a hit and ostensibly tied the score but the runner was called out for batting out of his turn by Umpire Henderson, who announced the game two to one in favor of Wilmington. Goldsboro protested the decision, claiming a tie, but Manager Gwaltney, who accompanies the Wilmington team, said tonight that Goldsboro was even now admitting that there is nothing in the protest and the game will go to Wilmington. Any change in the batting order was not announced by the Goldsboro captain, hence the call of the runner out.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

Goldsboro, N. C., July 22.—Both teams regret an unfortunate squabble that rose over the game here today in the ninth inning. There were two men down, the score standing two to one in favor of Wilmington when J. L. Sullivan batting for Adams singled, and Umstead, batting for Yerkes, hit over centerfielder's head for three bases scoring J. L. Sullivan and tieing the score two to two. The umpire called Umstead out for not notifying him that he was batting for Yerkes. Of course, the decision was immediately protested as there is no rule whatever requiring the umpire to receive any notice as this is regarded a matter for the scorer, who was notified. The tabulated score, disregarding the umpire's decision is as follows:

Kelley in the Box.

Raleigh, N. C., July 22.—Wilson defeated Raleigh worse than ever this afternoon, score 11 to 0, making three straights for Wilson on the Raleigh diamond this week. Raleigh's pitcher, Payne, was knocked out of the box and Manager Kelley took his place in the seventh but unfortunately gave two men bases on hit by pitched ball and started the runners who piled up scores against Raleigh.

TRAP SHOOT YESTERDAY

Stokley and Taylor Tied For High Average Yesterday With 49 Out of 50—The Scores in Detail.

Flushed with the success of the State and Inter-State shoot here last week, a goodly number of the members of the Wilmington Gun Club turned out for the regular weekly shoot yesterday afternoon at the traps near Delgado, the conditions being very favorable and some good scores having been made.

Stokley, the State champion, and Taylor, who is rapidly forging to the front of the local club, tied for high average of the afternoon with 49 out of 50 birds. Stokley had a straight run of 49 after dropping the first target. Ten other men at the traps also made very good records. Next Wednesday the club will begin a 100-bird race for a very handsome cigar mug of handpainted China, offered as a prize by the Hunter Arms Company. The trophy is now on exhibition at the store of the Wilmington , Cigar Company and was much admired yesterday when first exhibited at the club headquarters there.

The scores in detail yesterday were as follows:

	Shot at.	Broke.
Boylan	100	89
Holmes	100	88
Penny	100	76
Stokley	50	49
Taylor	50	49
Harriss	50	42
Dreher	75	68
Johnson	25	10
Merriman	75	55
Jones	25	15

It is likely that Stokley and perhaps two or three other members of the local club will attend the registered tournament to be held August 1st at Greensboro, N. C.

DAVIS IN MORE TROUBLE

Dealer Arrested Again Charged With Buying Stolen Goods.

On a warrant issued from the office of Justice John J. Furlong, on the affidavit of Tom Devane, colored, alleging that W. J. Davis, the second-hand goods dealer on Second street purchased a gun with the knowledge that the same had been unlawfully obtained, Mr, Davis was arrested yesterday and placed under bond pending a preliminary hearing. This makes the second time the accused has been arrested on a similar charge within the past two weeks, having been tried before Justice Bornemann on the first occasion and placed under bond for his appearance at higher court. Davis' place of business has been searched several times lately for stolen articles and yesterday the police found in his possession a clock, which he had obtained at a small cost and believing the same to have been stolen, the property was taken in charge and carried to the City Hall, to await identification by its owner Mr. Davis said that he paid only fifty cents for the article, which is estimated to be worth about $12. He was questioned by the officers in regard to the gun of Devane for the purpose of finding out from whom it was purchased, but he was unable to give any information calculated to lead to the arrest of the guilty party. He will be given a hearing before Justice Furlong in the latter case today, Herbert McClammy, Esq., appearing for the defendant.

ROBINSON BROUGHT BACK.

Negro Located in Newbern to Face Charge of Larceny Here.

John Robinson, the negro who committed a series of robberies at the saloon of Mr. H. M. Kelly, on Second and Princess streets, where he was employed as porter, was brought back to Wilmington yesterday by Constable W. B. Savage, who located him in Newbern soon after he left this city.

Constable Savage was notified Tuesday that the man believed to be wanted was being held in the latter place and he made a hurried trip and returned with Robinson, who will be given a preliminary trial before Justice Furlong today.

Driveway to the Ball Park.

The Tidewater Power Company yesterday completed a crossing over its track and drainage ditches at the intersection of the right of way and the property of the Cape Fear Golf Club, this in order that people may drive to the ball park in private conveyances, if they so desire, without trespassing on the golf links about which there has been much complaint. Eventually it is hoped to have the County Commissioners improve this driveway, which will be liberally traveled in the Summer.

Under a Peace Bond.

Contractor C. E. Parker was tried before Justice Sykes yesterday on a peace bond sworn out by Luther Edens, a young white man, who alleged that Contractor Parker had threatened him bodily injury and had witnesses to verify his statement. After hearing the evidence a bond of $100 was required of him to keep the peace for six months. This was immediately given and under the conditions the action was dismissed.

MANY DEFENDANTS

Eleven Faced The Mayor in The Police Court Yesterday at Noon.

NEGRO SEVERELY CLUBBED

Wouldn't Submit to Arrest and Had His Scalp Laid Open—Case of Young Barnie Leard—Other Cases.

The police court proceedings yesterday consisted of several cases of unusual interest, some eleven defendants being tried on various charges, the most important cases being that of John Phillips, colored, who gave the police trouble by resisting arrest, and Barnie Leard, a white man, who was sent to the higher court on the charge of larceny.

The police had to resort to severe methods in their effort to arrest Phillips, who was apprehended for a simple assault on a colored woman Tuesday night and yesterday on a second charge for resisting the officers.

Officers Frank George and W. R. Appleberry were summoned Tuesday night to arrest Phillips and he was found in Cleveland's alley near Ninth and Harnett streets. He was taken in charge, but absolutely refused to submit to arrest until he had been clubbed almost senseless. The negro, who is an African of powerful strength, made desperate efforts to release himself from the police and it gave them quite a struggle to hold him in check. Officer Appleberry used his club very effectively over the head of Phillips and with such force that the stick was broken in two parts. Officer George then laid the prisoner's scalp open with his club.

Phillips, when carried to the City Hall was in bad condition and Captain Smith found it necessary to send him to the hospital to dress his wounds. He was able to attend the police court yesterday and in the case for assaulting the woman he was sent to the county roads for thirty days. For resisting arrest he was placed under a $50 bond for his appearance at the next term of Superior court.

Barnie Leard, tried for the larceny of a physician's instruments, was sent over to the higher court under a bond of $100, which he failed to give and was remanded to jail. This defendant is believed to be implicated in several other robberies recently committed in the city.

When arrested the other day Leard had in his possession a number of keys. Yesterday afternoon Mr. John Poole, whose room in the Peterson & Rulfs building was recently ransacked, identified one of these keys as one stolen from his door at the time all his clothes and a number of effects were carried off.

Ed. Brinkley, Frank Ross and Tom Wright, small colored boys violated the law by playing ball in the street, and owing to their age, were severely thrashed and permitted to go.

Married at the Beach.

The romantic idea of being married amid the gaieties of the seashore appealed quite overpoweringly yesterday evening to Miss Pauline Aldridge Whitehead and Mr. Wm. H. Spence, prominent young people of Atlanta, Ga., who have been guests at the beach for some time, and so the groom, accompanied by his friend, Mr. T. J. Kannady, also of Atlanta, came up to Wilmington, secured the license and the ceremony was quite happily performed in the parlors of the Hotel Tarrymoore, where they are stopping. The young people had known each other long before in their home city and while the engagement is reported to have been announced some weeks ago, the announcement that they are married will come as quite a pleasant surprise to the "folks at home." Mr. Spence is a son of Mrs. Wm. H. Spence, of Atlanta, and the bride is a daughter of Mrs. E. A. Whitehead, also of Atlanta.

CROPS WERE NEVER FINER.

Outlook For Productive Yields in This Section Quite Promising.

A gentleman whose business it is to travel and make official reports of the crop conditions in this territory to his house, which is one of the large industrial enterprises operating all over the United States, has just completed a tour of the Eastern tier of counties in North Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina and says that he never saw a finer prospect for both cotton and corn. With nothing to give the growing crops a set-back he says that the yield of both cotton and corn will be a bumper. His observations were entirely without color and were for the purpose of obtaining the true status of affairs. He is enthusiastic in speaking of the fine crops the country over.

THE PROHIBITION PARTY.

Announcement is made that the candidates of the National Prohibition party are going to make a most aggressive campaign. The candidate for President, Mr. Eugene W. Chafin, and his running mate, Mr. Aaron S. Watkins, announce that they will make speeches in every State in the Union between now and the day of election. Both are said to be eloquent speakers, and, no doubt, they will stir up much interest in the cause they advocate in many parts of the country. But we look to see what gain that party makes over its vote of four years ago, if any it makes, will come rather from the Republican than from the Democratic party. The Prohibitionists polled 250,000 votes in the Presidential election of 1904, when Mr. Swallow was their candidate. They claim that their candidates this year will receive 600,000. We do not believe much of whatever increase they make will come from the South or from the Democratic party in other sections of the country. Because there seems to have been somewhat of a tidal wave in favor of prohibition in the South of late is no reason to believe that the Prohibition party has made great gains in this section. There is difference between passing prohibition as a moral question on a local issue with both Democrats and Republicans voting for it and giving allegiance to the Prohibition party as one of the National political divisions of the people. If the leaders of the Prohibition party expect it to show proportionate increase with the strength of the anti-saloon movement in the Democratic States of the South, they will be greatly disappointed. In North Carolina this party vote four years ago was only 361. It will be very little more than that this year, although the State went so overwhelmingly for prohibition in the April election. The men who voted for prohibition then were chiefly Democrats and are Democrats now and will prove themselves to be so on election day. The greatest strength and the greatest gain of the Prohibition party will come from the Republican ranks of the Northern States. If anything, any gain it will make will help rather than hurt our party.

TAFT AND HIS BOSS.

The press dispatches in yesterday's papers contained a very remarkable announcement by Mr. Taft—that he, the nominee for President by the great Republican party, would not make public his letter of acceptance of the nomination until the same had been submitted to Mr. Roosevelt for his judgment and criticism thereon. We are not so much surprised that Mr. Taft should take this course as we are at his public announcement of the fact. It is a piece of servility and acknowledgement of Mr. Roosevelt as his boss to which we did not think that man would stoop. It shows that there is truth in the statement which has so often been made that Mr. Taft is Mr. Roosevelt's candidate; that the President dominates both the party and the nominee. Why should Mr. Taft's letter of acceptance, which he intends to make his "most important utterance of the campaign" be submitted to Mr. Roosevelt or to anyone else? If Mr. Taft is the able man he is reported to be he surely is competent to write his own letter of acceptance. If it has to be submitted to Mr. Roosevelt for his judgment and criticism, won't it, after the latter has passed upon it and probably changed many of its declarations, really become the letter of Mr. Roosevelt and not of Mr. Taft? Doesn't this show to the whole country that, not only Mr. Roosevelt is Mr. Taft's boss, but that the latter does not hesitate to publicly admit the fact. This can but tend to lower the Republican candidate in the estimation of a great many people—not so much his willingness to submit to Mr. Roosevelt's bossism, but his matter-of-fact way in publicly acknowledging that as the candidate of his party he admits that man to be his boss. People who admire independence and manliness won't take well to this announcement by Mr. Taft.

TURNING TO BRYAN.

One by one the newspapers which in former campaigns were opposed to Mr. Bryan are now announcing their support of his candidacy. One of the latest declarations in his favor is by the New York Realty Journal, the organ of the real estate interests of the city of New York. It says it heretofore has supported Roosevelt, Hughes and McCellan and says it has always stood for good government regardless of politics. It declares its belief that Mr. Bryan will this year receive a majority of both the popular and of the electrical vote. It states its belief that the Republican national convention was controlled by the "special interests" and that the next administration, if Republican would be controlled by the same interests

It contends that Mr. Bryan represents the Roosevelt policies and will be able to enforce them with the Democratic party behind him, whereas Mr. Taft would be helpless in the matter. This is a remarkable admission by a paper advocating Mr. Bryan's election, but one in which a great many people will agree with the paper making it.

The Realty Journal asserts that the Hearst movement will amount to nothing, which is borne out by the statement in the press that many of the Independent League clubs in New York city and Brooklyn have declared for Bryan.

The Realty Journal is thoroughly independent. It belongs to no political party and it supports the man whose election it considers will be to the greatest advantage to the large and important interests it represents.

This is one of the many big straws which show the way the wind is blowing.

The Washington Post announces the first public wager in that city in the Presidential election. The bet was twenty to one that Taft would be elected, the sums put up being one hundred dollars and five dollars. Both parties to the bet were Republican office-holders. The fellow who gave such odds would surely feel like a fool were Bryan to be elected, and a good many people think that he will win this time. There is luck in odd numbers, especially in the number three, it is said, and it may be the man who put up the five dollars will win a hundred on it.

The Observer announces that Miss Havis ,who so mysteriously left Charlotte last Friday morning and was found in Columbia on Sunday has been brought back to her home where she is being nursed by her relatives. She is in a pitiable condition, both physicially and mentally, but it is thought that rest and careful nursing will restore her. Her friends are still unable to account for her strange conduct except that it was a nervous break-down which affected her mind. For some time she has suffered from insomnia.

"The independent voter is the salt of the Republic. The man who demands that his party give him clean, true men to vote for scratches his ticket when the other sort appear thereon is a better party man than his neighbor who swallows the dose."—Webster's Weekly.

That is political heresy, but still there is a good deal of truth in it.

FOR COMFORT OF HORSES.

Wilmington, N. C., July 22.
Editor "The Morning Star."

Dear Sir: I certainly do commend you for the article in this morning's Star on "Look to Comfort of Your Horse." It was timely and needed. Now won't you go a step farther and advocate the placing of at least three more drinking fountains for horses. One is badly needed in Brooklyn, one on the wharf near the railroad and one on Market street, say at or near Tenth street.

Many horses suffer with thirst this hot weather because no fountain is near where their drivers work. There are only three in town, one at Fifth and Castle, one on Dock street, near Front and one on Campbell near Fourth. Others ought to be erected before the streets are paved.

Yours cordially,
W. M. CUMMING.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—Apropos to the revolutionary movement in Honduras, a special cable despatch to the Herald from Panama this morning notes that observers there are convinced that officials of several of the Central American republics are involved. All, however, declare themselves neutral, and under the watchful eyes of the United States and Mexican governments it is likely that the seething will subside.—New York Herald.

—Why object that both National Democratic candidates are lawyers? It is possible that neither knows enough law to hurt, while both may be wise enough to obey the law and prove acceptable officials because they have been good citizens. No lawyer could be more contemptuous of law than Roosevelt, while only a great lawyer could have done as much to subvert the law as Root.—Florida Times-Union.

—In declaring equally a menace to American institutions the combination of capital which coerces the business man into joining it under threat of ruin and the labor organization which resorts to the boycott for forcing unwilling men into its ranks Justice Brewer was the exponent of a widely prevailing conviction. Individual human rights are not without advocates even in this day and generation.—Charlotte Observer.

—The Philadelphia Ledger concludes the enthusiasm in the South for Mr. Bryan is difficult to locate. "The South," says the Ledger," is not Bryanite, but it is still Democratic and has no disposition to be reconciled to Taft. The view is a correct one and evidences keener observation than may be found in the Ledger's further conclusion that the South fears the action of the Republican party with regard to the negro vote if once the solid South were broken. This fear is not general in the South and its estimated extent is greatly exaggerated through a long-distance glass.—Chattanooga Times.

A City and Its Press.

In some respects a modern city resembles a vast commercial house. In commerce advertisement is the secret of success, and the most successful coadjutors of the municipality in the development and puffing of a capital are the newspapers. And here Berlin is lacking. Her press is on a hopelessly low level, impoverished, without enterprise, under the thumb of the authorities. In London, New York and Paris the press has a voice in the running of the city.—London Outlook.

MAYFLOWER SINKS SCHOONER.

President and Party Brought Story of Terrible Night.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Newport, R. I., July 22.—When the trim cruiser yacht Mayflower steamed into the harbor this morning nearly two hours behind schedule time, with her bowsprit missing, one anchor gone, bow plates dented and six strange figures in black oil skins and sou'westers gathered in the bow, she brought the story of an adventurous night run in the blackest fog of the Summer and of a collision in which the lumber-laden schooner Monawa was cut practically in two by President Roosevelt's yacht. A life boat lowered from the Mayflower picked up the crew of six men on the sinking boat. They were taken on board and today when the Mayflower arrived here the President, who knew nothing of the accident, and the danger of the collision, until he arose this morning, directed that they be given sufficient money to take them to their homes in Maine, and that the master of the schooner, "Skipper" Hutchinson, be provided with transportation to the office of his agents in New York. Commander Snowden, who was in command of the Mayflower, organized a summary court of inquiry, in which he took the statements of his men for use in investigation for which he immediately requested the Navy Department at Washington to undertake. The Mayflower, after leaving the President and his family at Oyster Bay tomorrow, will probably go to the New York Navy Yard for repairs. There was no excitement of any sort on the yacht at the time of the collision.

Delightful Resort in Mountains of Western North Carolina.

Handsomely illustrated booklets have been received in this city advertising the Eseeola Inn and Linville, delightful resorts in Western North Carolina where many people are going to spend the remainder of the Summer.

This is justly one of the most popular resorts in Western North Carolina. Situated from 4,000 to 6,000 feet above the sea level, Linville holds out many attractions to seekers after pleasure and health. Linville Park includes 16,000 acres of mountain and forest land, owned and protected by a private enterprise, and nowhere have the beauties of nature been better preserved. The famous Grandfather mountain is accessible from that point. Fishing, tennis, boating, dancing, horseback riding and golf are among the amusements.

STORM SWEPT CABARRUS.

Bleachery and Finishing Mill at Concord Destroyed—Loss $250,000.

Concord, July 22.—An electrical storm and heavy rain passed over this city and county last night, causing disaster in various ways.

At 9:30 o'clock lightning struck a section pipe leading to the napping room of the Kerr Bleachery and fining mill, setting fire to the plant, which was entirely consumed.

A heavy rainfall was in progress while the fire was on, rendering the firemen powerless to be of any service in saving the building of the plant, as the structure stood in a gush or basin, surrounded by the Cannon Mills, Cannon Bleachery, the Southern Railway and a high embankment.

The water poured into the burning section from three directions and had an outlet of ten feet, through a culvert under the railroad. Water had backed to a depth of from six to ten feet, making the building impossible to reach.

The plant was capitalized at $150,000. Capt. J. M. Odell is president, and Mr. W. R. Odell secretary and treasurer. There were probably more than $100,000 worth of goods belonging to manufacturers throughout the country, going through the finishing process, making the aggregate loss conservatively estimated $250,000 to $300,000. All was fully covered by insurance. The night watchman, John Christian, a negro, blew the whistle in the engine room until water had run in upon his body to his waist, and then scuffled to reach a safe landing before he could give further alarm.

In the county eight of the public bridges have been washed away, doing probably $25,000 damage in all sections along Irish Buffalo, big and little Cold Water, the Three Mile Branch and Coddle Creek. Much hay and cattle, watermelons and other bottom growths have been totally destroyed, besides a hay stack burned within twenty feet of the barn of Farmer Jackson on the Walter Abner place.

The storm lasted for three and a half hours, and was full of awe and terror to the citizens throughout the section covered.

BRYAN ON MONOPOLIES.

Made Two Speeches Yesterday—Honesty a Theme.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Lincoln, Neb., July 22.—Honesty in business and a defense of the Denver platform, particularly with respect to publicity before collection of campaign contributions, formed the themes of two addresses made today by William J. Bryan. The first speech was at Capital Beach to the Association of Grocers and Butchers of Lincoln and the second to the State Democratic Committee.

In his remarks to the grocers and butchers Mr. Bryan dwelt on monopolies in certain products, but declared that merchandising was the last branch of business in which there will be a mononoly, because he [illegible] said, the moment such monopoly was established a competitor would present himself and the people would thereby be protected against extortion.

To the State Committee Mr. Bryan gave assurances that reports of Democratic success from different parts of the country were encouraging.

"The reports that we get from the country are very encouraging, and one of them, I think especially deserves notice: The promptness with which our Democratic papers are taking up the subject of subscriptions to the campaign fund is very encouraging. Several have already opened subscriptions, and I believe that it is going to be quite generally followed. This is probably a response to the party's position in regard to publicity concerning campaign contributions and it verifies the hope of those who believed that if the party threw itself upon the confidence of the masses of the people, if the party announced its determination to rely for its sinews of war upon contributions that would come from the body of the population, and receive n contribution that would not be made public, that confidence would be reciprocated and the people would respond. I believe there is evidence that we are going to have that response, and when the voters take upon themselves the burden of furnishing campaign contributions, the voters will have an interest in the Government that they have not had heretofore. I think it is an earnest indication of what is to come. I think it is an auspicious beginning of this new era of politics."

AMERICANS DISAPPOINTED

A South African Winner of Hundred Metre Dash Contest in the Olympic Games at London—Big Day at the Stadium.

(By Cable to the Morning Star.)

London, July 22.—Comparative gloom pervaded the American camp tonight. The athletes from over the seas had strongly cherished hopes of repeating yesterday's grand record, making a clean sweep in the track events, but a dark horse in the person of the South African youth, R. E. Walker, up-set the calculations. Walker broke the tape in what is considered the most important event in the Olympic games, the 100 metres dash, a short two feet in front of J. A. Rector, the University of Virginia crack, thereby putting an end to the astonishing succession of American triumphs, which had begun to sadden the Britons.

Shoulder to shoulder, Walker, Rector and the Canadian star, Kerr, ran down the straight, with Cartmell, the Pennsylvania sprinter, close behind. At the half way mark, Walker forged slightly ahead, but at the tape less than a yard separated the first three men, with the Canadian only inches behind the Virginian, in third place.

The American team did remarkably well at the Stadium today, but success had elated them to the point where they were satisfied with nothing less than everything in sight. A world's record, by C. J. Bacon, of the Irish-American Athletic Club, in the 400 metres hurdling, which he won in 55 seconds, an Olympic record of 24 feet 4 1-2 inches by F. C. Irons, of the Chicago Athletic American in the running broad jump, and the victory of G. S. Dole, of Yale, in the feather-weight wrestling, out of seven finals, should be a satisfactory day's performance.

It would be hard to imagine a finer spectacle than the stadium presented today. From athletic, social and spectacular standpoints, it quite equaled the expectations of the promoters. Queen Alexandra and other members of the Royal family were present and congratulated the African runner on his victory. The stands contained 40,000 persons, of whom at least one-half were women. The American section was truly American, with waving flags and noise making instruments. There was organizaed cheering by a large band of collegians under the leadership of a frantic youth, brandishing a huge club and shouting "Rah, Rah, Rah, Bacon," which was heartily taken up by the others when the first American victory of the day was proclaimed. This caught the fancy of the crowd immediately as did the American's cheering for Walker, who, although he defeated their favorite, was cordially greeted as their own countryman.

Just in time with kidney ills
Means curing the back
Before backache becomes chronic:
Before serious urinary troubles set in
Doan's Kidney Pills will do this
Here is Wilmington testimony to prove it.

A. M. Wilson, 402 South Fifth street, Wilmington, N. C., says: "You can put me down as a strong and willing endorser of Doan's Kidney Pills, as I know them to be the best remedy to be had for kidney trouble. My back was very weak and lame and though I wore plasters and used liniments, I did not get any relief. The kidney secretions were so frequent in action that I had to get up several times at night and they also contained a heavy sediment. I heard so much about Doan's Kidney Pills that I decided to try them and got a box at Robert R. Bellamy's drug store. They cured me after other remedies had failed and it can be plainly seen why I am so willing to endorse them."

ELEVEN PERSONS SHOT

Desperadoes Pass Through Jamaica Plains Firing Madly.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Boston, Mass., July 22.—Eleven persons were shot tonight, three of them probably fatally by two desperadoes who, on being pursued by policemen and a crowd of citizens, fled for two miles through a thickly settled district of Jamaica Plain, firing madly right and left and disappeared in the woods near Franklin Park. The men are believed to be two of the gang of three, who robbed a saloon in Jamaica Plain last night, after shooting and killing one man and wounding two others.

Mrs. Delia Fallon is one of the most seriously injured.

Herbert E. Knox, of Rostindale, night watchman at the Forest Hills cemetery, and Edward McMahlen, a Dorchester patrolman are on the dangerous list at Emerson Hospital. The others injured are: John Nolan, shot in arm; Thos. Fleming, shot in hand; Thomas Moore, street car conductor, shot in leg; Officer Ingalls, bullet in leg; Officer Cox, shot in ankle; Patrick McGinn, shot in the side, Michael Flynn, head-grazed by bullet; Patrolman Thompson, shot in leg.

NO FINANCIAL PLAN

Directors of Virginia-Carolina Chemical Co. Abandon Plan.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, July 22.—Contrary to expectations no financial plan was submitted to the stockholders of the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company at their annual meeting in Jersey City today. An official statement was made about a month ago that a plan was underway for a bond issue of approximately $15,000,000.

One of the financiers identified with the company said today however, that this entire plan had been abandoned by the directors. Officials have just returned from an inspection of the corporations plants in the Southern States and they express themselves very optimistically regarding its affairs and the future possibilities for business.

In the circumstances it was felt that the company did not require new funds especially since a satisfactory price for bonds could scarcely be obtained in the present market.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Winston Sentinel: "Dick" Boyer, a colored man residing near Mr. A. B. Atwood, just west of the city, is said to have reached the ripe age of 106 years. The old man, during slavery days, belonged to ancestors of the late ex-Sheriff Boyer. Last winter the old negro cut cord wood. He is failing, though physically and mentally he is a most remarkable darkey. "Dick" is one of the best negroes I ever saw, and all of his white neighbors have the utmost confidence in him for honesty and truthfulness," said a white neighbor of the old man today. He also stated that "Dick" was a consecrated Christian and since his freedom had never failed to ask a blessing before each meal.

—News and Observer: It is the desire of the North Carolina, Geological and Economic Survey to assist land owners to make their timber lands profitable. State Geologist Joseph Hyde Pratt states that it is difficult, however, to give satisfactory directions for the management of timber lands by letter on account of the different conditions existing in every piece of woodland. For this reason the State oFrester will personally examine lands when requested to do so by the owners, provided there are at least five hundred acres at one place to be examined. The acreage need not necessarily belong to one person.

—Monroe, July 21.—The investigation of the Morris murder conducted by Lawyer Redwine, of Monroe, and several magistrates at Weddington today was held behind closed doors and many witnesses were examined. Mr. Redwine stated tonight that the investigation furnished no new clue to the perpetrators of the crime and that everything is in the same status as before. Suspicion in the neigaborhood of the crime is now directed against Mrs. Morris, but it is vague and evidently had its origin in the knowledge that husband and wife had quarreled frequently and that Mrs. Morris had threatened to kill her husband. It is also pointed out that her story of the murder is the only account of it. The suspicion against William Davis and wife, neighbors of Mr. Morris, seems without foundation.

—By the accidental saturating of an old kitchen with gasoline at Chapel Hill, a blaze ignited it Sunday night and burnt it down. The old room belonged to Mr. J. B. Sykes, manager of the Durham Auto and Transfer Company. It was used as a gasoline dispensary and it was here that the machines pulled up daily for replenishing. Sunday night one of Mr. Sykes' friends allowed the place to catch from the lamp and in a few minutes the house was burning all over. The gasoline tank containing about 80 gallons, was destroyed but there was no explosion. The old kitchen has a history. It was used by President David L. Swain in his college days and after he was governor he came back to the place and spent the night there when Miss Annie Craig kept the old inn. There was luck in the way the thing turned out. The gasoline tank might have exploded and shaken the whole Hill up and fire sent rampant over the village.—Durham Herald.

—Kinston Free Press: The tobacco men in the city are now unusually active, despite the oppressiveness of the weather, preparing for handling the large tobacco crop this season. Conditions for a good crop are more favorable now than two weeks ago and farmers appear more optimistic. The facilities for handling tobacco this year will be as near perfect as is possible, and everybody that knows is talking higher prices. The market will open here on the 3rd of August.

—Newbern Journal: It is not generally known, but it is a fact, however, that there are two or three able-bodied men in Craven county, making a living or more, catching frogs. Frog legs bring fancy prices at the swell hotels in the cities. But little effort is required to capture the frogs and prepare their quarters for market, so the business is bound to be remunerative. Frog farming my become one of the industries of Craven county.

—News and Observer: Involuntary bankruptcy proceedings were instituted here yesterday in the United States District Court against the Kinston Lumber Company by the John L. Roper Lumber Company. Thos. Fitzgerald, Harry K. Wolcott and Hugh M. Kerr, receivers of the Norfolk and Southern Railway, and Ellington & Guy, of Richmond, Va. The company admitted in writing its insolvency and willingness to be adjudged a bankrupt. Judge Purnell appointed George W. Roper, who was president of the company, receiver of the property, fixing his bond at $25,000, and Mr. Roper left immediately for Kinston to take charge. It was stated that Mr. Roper became president sometime after the Norfolk and Southern acquired an interest in the property and made great efforts to extricate the company from the embarrassment by which it was surrounded when the property was turned over to his management. These proved to be unsuccessful because of adverse financial and market conditions. It was said that the petitioning creditors controlled practically all of the stock and probably eighty per cent. of the company's liabilities, and that Mr. W. W. Mills, of Kinston, general manager, was acting with the petitioning creditors and that the proceedings were of a friendly character intended to protect and preserve the assets of the company. Edward R. Baird, Jr., of Norfolk, Va., who is general counsel for the John L. Roper Lumber Company, and the Norfolk and Southern Railway Company, and its receivers, represents the creditors and receivers and instituted the proceedings.

William Penn

AMONG all the builders of this Nation none deserve more lasting gratitude than this stout old Quaker Champion.

Irish and English prisons could not conquer his spirit, and from a cell in the tower of London he conceived the idea of founding beyond the seas a state wherein Brotherly Love—Peace On Earth and Personal Liberty might become living facts. Thus Pennsylvania was founded.

When colonial governor he introduced vine-growing and brewing,and at Pennbury Manor he had a brew house.*

Above middle height—well built and agile—William Penn in his early days was an expert swordsman, a courageous soldier, and a splendid athlete.

He died at 74, and the results of his life's doings bear eloquent witness that the moderate use of a good malt beer helps to create the noblest qualities of mind and soul.

His statue stands in Philadelphia, 547 feet high—for all the world to see.

LUPULIN

Has created a stir in the medical world because of its great Tonic properties for stomach disorders. It is found in the highest and most effective form in Saazer Hops, grown in the Province of Saaz, Bohemia.

The Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association, St. Louis, U. S. A., import more of these hops than all other brewers in the United States, and use them exclusively in their famous

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, July 22.—The cotton market was less active than yesterday and showed considerable nervousness, with fluctuations irregular and the close steady at a net decline of 6 to 12 points on the old crop while the new crop held most of yesterday's gain, closing only 2 to 3 points net lower. Sales were estimated at 150,000 bales. The market opened steady at a decline of 6 points to an advance of 4 points, the old crop being dull and relatively easy. Some of yesterday's big sellers started offering blocks of 14,000 bales, but their cotton was quickly taken and later the offerings were less aggressive while the market advanced on Wall Street bull support, scattered covering, and fear of renewed complaints of dry and hot weather from Eastern sections of the belt. The advance was not checked until October had sold at 9.50; and January at 9.26 or 6 to 9 points net higher, but at this level heavy selling orders made their appearance, suggesting a reduction in the concentrated long interest.

Trailing longs consequently liquidated and offerings for short account became rather more confident, particularly as the forecast was for showers in the Carolinas. Within a point near two of last night's finals on the active new crop months, however, there seemed to be a renewal of bull support and the market was narrow in the late session. On any encouragement whatever, local professionals seem willing to sell the market, but are rendered nervous by the strength of bull support on set-backs. Cables were about as expected.

Receipts at the ports today 2,945 bales against 3,836 last week and 2,605 last year. For the week 25,000 bales against 25,004 last week and 7,953 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 1,194 bales against 762 last year and at Houston 1,106 bales against 406 last year.

Spot closed quiet, 10 points lower; middling uplands 10.90; middling gulf 11.15; sales none. Futures opened and closed steady.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, July 22.—Excepting on cotton goods that are exceptionally styled and have therefore selling advantages, trading on the primary market was quiet today. A good amount of new business was booked on staple prints on boarded goods and the jobbers had a fairly satisfactory day. Broad silks are moving slowly but ribbons are quite active. The amount of business on hosiery and underwear is being confined within narrow limits.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

New York, July 22.—There was no constant trend in the course of prices of stocks today. The market was whipped into some show of animation by one or two of the occurrences of the day but these influences expended themselves in a short time and left no apparent trace in the market. Extreme uncertaintly of speculative sentiment seemed to be expressed by the numerous fluctuations. When the reversal of the lower court became known in the Standard Oil case there was considerable excitement, and a jump in prices resulted. Standard Oil stock itself rose 16 points in the outside market. The effect in the stock market proved to be shortlived. The first bulge in prices was taken advantage of to effect a free distribution of speculative holdings by those who have followed the rise in prices. The hesitation and irregularity in the stock division was in contrast with the sustained demand of the bond division. Not only in the aggregate par value of the sales but also in the variety of the demand today's bond market was even more striking than on earlier days of the week. The number of different bonds dealt in was larger than any day since the present revival set in. The absorptive power of the demand for stocks had a reassuring effect as the day progressed and made the closing strong and at a general gain.

Bonds were strong. Total sales, par value, were $5,032,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total stock sales today were 837,500 shares.

FINANCIAL MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, July 22.—Money on call easy 1 1-4 to 1 1-2 per cent; ruling rate 1 1-4; closing bid 1; offered at 1 1-4. Time loans stronger; sixty days 2 per cent, and 90 days 2 1-4; six months 4 per cent. Prime mercantile paper 3 1-2 to 4 per cent; sterling exchange weak with actual business in bankers bills at 4.8680 for demand and at 4.8540 o 4.8550 for sixty day bills. Commercial bills 4.85 1-2. PRESIDENT PLEADS SUPPORT OF NAVY

Spoke at Notable Conference of American Officers at Newport.

NAVAL POWER UNCLE SAM

Roosevelt Wants the Water Forces to Be Capable of Seeking Out Enemy and "Hammering Him Into Quits."

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

Newport, R. I., July 22.—Pleading for popular support for a "first class fighting navy", a navy capable of seeking out the enemy and "hammering him into the quits," President Roosevelt was the central figure here today in the most notable conference of American Naval officers ever called together to consult and discuss, in a broad, general way, the future United States battleships. The President spoke publicly for more than a half an hour, and then the conference went into executive session for one hour. During this session the President took a leading part in the discussion. He argued as a layman, he explained, and did not attempt to give advice to professional men.

The President said in part: "Admiral, Mr. Secretary, gentlemen:

"I could not speak to you technically. I can speak to my fellow countrymen, who are deeply interested in the American Navy, but who sometimes tend to be misled as to the kind of navy we should have and as to what the navy can and ought to do.

"For instance, there are always certain numbers of well meaning, amiable individuals, coupled with others not quite so well meaning, who advocate merely a coast defense navy. Such advocacy illustrates a habit of mind as old as human nature itself, the desire at the same time to do something, and not to do it.

"No fight was ever won yet except by hitting, and the one unforgivable offense in any man is to hit soft. That applies to the individual and it applies to the nation, and to those who advocate a coast defense navy, are advocating that we shall adopt as a National principle, the principle of hitting soft. But when this nation does have to go to war, such war will only be excusable if the nation intends to hammer its opponent until that opponent quits fighting.

"For the protestion of our coast we need fortifications, not merely to protect the salient points of our possessions, but so that the navy can be foot loose. A year ago, at the time it was announced that the fleet was to go abroad, there was a certain number of neswpapers, especially in my own city of New York, that raised a clamorous protest against it. It took at one time the form of a mistaken prophesy to the effect that the fleet would not be allowed to go around the world would leave New York defenseless in the event of war. The theory evidently was that the fleet, or a portion of it, would be used especially to protect New York and other cities in the event of war. If war comes at any time in the future, that administration under which it comes will indeed be guilty of folly if they use the fleet to protect any port. Let the port be protected by the fortifications the fleet must be foot loose to search out and destroy the enemies fleet.

"There has been no division on the Monroe Doctrine, no division on building, maintaining, policing and defending the Panama Canal, no division about Hawaii, and Porto Rico, no division about keeping Alaska, no division about asserting our superior right to defend and protect Cuba. Not one of the courses of action thus outlined can be followed out excepting with a first class navy. The Monroe Doctrine was in danger of falling not merely into discuss but into contempt, until we began to build up our navy. The Monroe Doctrine unbacked by a navy is an empty boast.

"If we have a cast defense navy only, we had better at once turnover the Panama Canal to some stronger and braver nation, and give up Hawaii, Porto Rico, and Alaska, and say that we had no more interest in Cuba than the smallest outside power.

"The theory of certain of our fellow citizens that we can permanently follow a policy of peace with insult is erroneous. We must stand up for rights firmly, but temperately and courteuosly, and with all possible respect, not merely for the rights but for the feelings of others."

PRINCE GREETED BY ALL CANADA

Royal Visitor Landed Yesterday Amid Great Demonstrations.

ADDRESS PREMIER LAURIER

American, British and French Warships Join in Celebrating Opening Exercises of 300th Anniversary—Thousands.

(By Cable to the Morning Star.)

Quebec, July 22.—The Prince of Wales landed from the British battleship Indomitable today, among the deafening roar of guns from the international fleet, of British, French and American warships and the tumultuous demonstrations of 50,000 people massed upon the wharves and the terraced heights of the city. It was a spectacle of truly royal splendor for the latest type of British dreadnaught, with the royal standard flying, came to anchor among the double column of foreign warships and the Prince was welcomed ashore by Earl Grey, Governor General of Canada, Premier Laurier and the assembled dignitaries, flanked by thousands of soldiers and a multitude of people.

It was 2:45 this afternoon when the crowds assembled on the cliffs, saw the Prince of Wales fleet emerge from the mist far down the river. Immediately the guns of the warships began to thunder, the British, French and American ships firing their royal salutes together, while every ship hoisted the royal standard and broke out a mass of color from stem to stern. The Indomitable advanced majestically, with sailors and marines ranged along the gun deck. As she swung alongside the New Hampshire the collossal magnitude and power of the British ship stood out in bold relief against the American battleship, which looked like a delicate white yacht beside this truly monstrous engine of destruction. Back of her came the Mino Taur, another naval colossus.

At four o'clock the battleships again roared a salute as the Prince disembarked from his ship and came ashore. He wore the uniform of an Admiral, with waving white plume and dark coat faced with gold embroidery.

As he stepped on the King's landing every eye was turned on his rather frail and youthful figure. The Prince bears little resemblance to his father, King Edward VII. He is below medium stature with rather thin features and close cropped yellow saxon beard, trimmed to a point. His face wore a pleased smile at echoing shots of the people, the rattle saluting arms and the strains of the British National anthem. One of the first glimpses the Prince got as he stepped ashore was a bevy of English, French and American women, in beautiful toilette ranged in terraced seats before the landing stage, including Mrs. Fairbanks, wife of the Vice President and Mrs. Cowles, wife of the Admiral and sister of President Roosevelt.

Premier Laurier delivered to the Prince an address of welcome in which he assured him of the unswerving loyalty and devotion of Canada to the King and its united resolution to promote the interests of the Empire. The Prince responded in happy vein, speaking both English and French, extending the good wishes of his royal father to Canada and making pleasant allusion to the loyalty of English and French Canadians alike. The ceremonies concluded, the Prince was driven in open carriage through the streets lined with soldiers and packed with people to the citadel, where the royal quarters are established for his week's stay.

Naval experts are much interested in the Indomitable, known in England as the "Mistery Ship", owing to the secrecy with which her recent construction has been surrounded. In appearance she is a complete departure from the old battleship and is little more than a huge gun platform with all top hamper cleared away so as to give open sweep to her eight 12-inch guns, capable of firing fore or aft or broadside with a concentrated fire of 13,600 pounds of steel projectiles every minute.

JUDGE LANDIS IS REVERSED

In The Big Standard Oil Company Rebate Indictments.

ILLEGALITY OF THE FINE

Pronounced by the Circuit Court of Appeals—Each Car Load Shipment Not a Separate Offense—Maximum Fine.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Chicago, July 22.—Following the unanimous decision today of Judges Grosscup, Seaman and Baker, composing the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, reversing and remanding the case of the Government against the Standard Oil Company, of Indiana, in which case Judge Landis, in the District Court had imposed a fine of $29,240,000, the Federal attorneys today announced that the government had 30 days within which to file a petition for a re-hearing, and that it would be filed within the allotted period.

In the case that was reversed today the Standard Oil Company of Indiana was found guilty of accepting rebates on shipments of oil from its refinery at Whiting, Ind., to East St. Louis, Ill. Judge Landis fined the company $20,000 on each of 1,462 counts, each count representing a carload shipment.

Today's opinion of three Judges of the higher court leaves little of the contention that each carload constituted a separate offense. Even the various shipments, of which there were about 500, could not be considered as separate offenses under the ruling of the Court of Appeals. The fine should have been based on settlements between the railroad and the oil company, the opinion holds. Of these there were just 36. The maximum fine on this basis would amount to $720,000 and the minimum $36,000. It is said that $223,000 is the total amount which the Standard Oil Company is alleged to have received as rebates on the shipments in question.

In the event that a re-hearing is denied, the Government may go to trial on the original indictment, containing 1,462 counts. Such action District Attorney Sims could be ready to take within two weeks. There are also seven other indictments containing 4,422 counts. As a vast amount of work has been done on the case already decided and reversed, it is unlikely that an entirely new case will be instituted. The record of the present case contains over a million and a half words, and is estimated to have cost the Government $200,000.

Another move which may be made by the Federal Attorney is to transfer the prosecution from this jurisdiction either to the Western New York District or the Eastern Tennessee Court. In these two districts, the Government investigation led to indictments containing about 2,000 counts against the Standard Oil Company.

The most striking portion of the decision, epitomizing the attitude of the court, follows:

"Counsel for the Government say in concluding their brief that the Elkins Act was passed because the peace of society and the welfare of the people demanded it; that railroad inequality means business ruin to all except those powerful enough to make themselves the beneficiaries of the discriminations; means the wiping out of an industry, of a town, of a city, at the command of an officer of a private corporation; that railroad inequality is the basis of monopoly and the wrongful concentration of wealth; that no law of more vital importance was ever passed by Congress; and that those guilty of violating it are guilty of a serious crime against the principles of industrial freedom and equality.

"Every sentence of this arraignment is true. That this court recognizes the importance of the enforcement of that act is shown in it affirmance of penalties that under other circumstances would be regarded as very severe. But the Inter-State Commerce Act, important as that law is, is not the only law under which we live. We live under a guaranty that reaches back to the beginning of our law, and is securely planted in every constitution of civilized government; that no one shall be punished until he has been heard, and above this fundamental guaranty there can be set no higher prerogative; for let it once come to pass that under the stress of enforcing equality, any power in the Government may over-ride the fundamental rights of being judged only after having been duly tried—a right just as essential in the associated relation of the corporation as to men in the relationship of co-partners, of to men individually—there will remain no commerce worth the name to safeguard. The beginning of commerce is constitutional government, and the foundation of constitutional government is the faith that every guaranty of our institutions, no matter what the provocation, would be sacredly observed."

The court room was crowded with lawyers and newspaper men when Judges Grosscup, Baker and Seaman took their seats. Judge Grosscup did not read the document, merely referring to it by number and stating that the case had been reversed and remanded. This was jubilation among the Standard Oil lawyers, who declared that the decision had been expected, while the Government attorneys went quietly to District Attorney Sims office to study the document. The whole proceedings occupied only a few moments. News of the verdict spread rapidly and Standard Oil stock jumped 14 points, a rise of 68 points since Monday morning.
